

Past Record of the Meeting - Nursing Practice 2020

Mr. Alejandro De la Parra Solomon

Executive Board Member of WAMS (The World Academy of Medical Sciences) Mexico

A sincere thanks to to our keynote speakers, plenary speakers, industry participants, teachers, organizations, media representatives and visitors on behalf of the members of the conference committee for making Nursing Practice a fruitful academic forum in 2020!

The 31st International Conference on Nursing Practice was held between July 08-09, 2020, organized by AAC. Benevolent response and active involvement were obtained from representatives of the Foreign Journals Editorial Board, as well as from leading scientists, academics, medical scholars, students and experts from the health care industry who made this event a success.

The conference was marked by the presence of young and enthusiastic academics, business leaders and innovative student groups from over 5 nations, who propelled this occurrence into the path of success. The conference addressed new retroviral research across a number of separate workshops.

Nursing Practice 2020 witnessed an amalgamation of peerless speakers that trained the crowd in their skills and discussed numerous new-catched topics relevant to the fields of nursing and health care.

The conference participants expressed their views on the theme "Enlighten the unexplored challenges of Medical mothers during the Covid 19 pandemic". It was both a reflectional and insightful event for the conference attendees.

AAC would like to convey deep gratitude to the chairs / co-chairs and members of the session who have made this event a great success and valuable experience for research participants, academics, healthcare practitioners, industry representatives and community people.
