Editorial Note

Welcome to the new issue release of Optometry: Open Access Journal in 2020. Hope this year marks a milestone in the history of the journal because it comes with some very interesting and informative manuscripts within scope of journal. To get best advantage out of this development, we encourage more types of articles besides, regular research, review or commentary articles we are also planning to publish video article, which is bit interesting. This will help us in scoring high in performance measures and moving up in journal ranking lists. We have also Planned to release special issue on the pandemic coronaviruses. We endeavour to release excellent manuscripts, as a preferred content article always gains a potential impact on the readers, so we would like to publish your renowned articles and we are positive that your contribution will definitely help in emerging new concepts to the readers and emerging researchers. Though our journal has a long history and it continues to improve with time, we cannot really ignore the importance ascribed to the ranking exercises.

The journal welcomes the submission of manuscripts that meet the criteria of scientific excellence and journal standard. Papers will be published approximately 15 days after acceptance. As a member of Publisher International linking Association (PILA), Journal of Clinical Diabetes follows the Creative Commons Attribution License and Scholars Open Access publishing policies.

It is time to have a glance at the journal as truly international and continue to assiduous to help the journal in climbing up the ranking ladder with great number of informative and within scope manuscripts. We should find better manuscripts that explore and analyse novel thoughts and innovation in this field of cardiology. Research directions, original articles that can create deep interest in the readership of the journal and content that the researchers do not want to miss. It requires a lot of exertions of the Editor to do this assessment, the role of Editor comes with a great responsibility than power. The decisions may leave some of the authors unhappy, but this is inevitable to shape up the journal into what we are aspiring for. I thank the entire editorial board and reviewers for all their support. My warm reception to the newbie of the Editorial Board of the journal. Together we would work towards making Cardiovascular Medicine and Therapy a truly influential publication. Comments, suggestions and special issue proposals are always embraced.
